Smallpox in Naples.—During the week ended April 15 there were 12 cases of smallpox with 4 deaths reported at the health office of the city of Naples.

NEW ZEALAND.

AUCKLAND—Plague.

The following information received from the department of public health of New Zealand was forwarded April 4 by Consul General Prickett:

From March 21 to 30 there were admitted to hospital at Auckland 3 cases of plague, of which 1 case ended fatally March 29. The fatal case was of the pneumonic form. The 3 cases occurred at Onehunga, near Auckland. They originated in the same house and at about the same time. All precautions have been taken to prevent spread of the disease.

Onehunga is a port of entry about 7 miles by rail from Auckland.
